

Brabus Mercedes Vehicles and customize them to an extreme level. Brabus is known for pushing the boundaries of performance and luxury, often by increasing engine power, enhancing exteriors, and creating opulent interiors.

Brabus is known for providing expensive tuning, cosmetic modifications including low profile spoilers, body kits, carbon fiber splitters, Other upgrades include racing LSDs open racing exhaust systems, twelve-piston disc brakes, and engine remapping.

The Standard C63 features with the extra Brabus touch which has

- Larger Braking system

- 19" Brabus genuine system

- Akrapovic full stainless larger headers and pipes to the rear, Akrapovic is a manufacturer of premium exhaust systems for performance cars

- Lowered to the maximum legal requirements with the same ride for comfort.